VICTORY AT MOSCOW

The mystery centered in Moscow is beginning to clear up. We have known that Russia has been winning the victory for more than a year. This much, all could see.

But we could not see some other things. Were we winning, along with the Russians? Of course as the Russians weakened the Germans, our cause was served. But always the question remained, were the Russians winning for themselves alone? Would they, in their own time, and before the Germans were defeated, conclude a peace with Germany, leaving us to finish the war?

It is now clear that all have won at Moscow. We, the British, and the Russians will fight till Germany surrenders. This means victory, swift, and complete - victory for all.

HARD GOING IN ITALY

One month ago this paper predicted that our men would find the going difficult in Italy. For a week or more, it looked as though better fortune was in store for us. But not so. It has turned out to be the other way round. Progress is very slow. Toil, blood and death are our lot in the mountains of Italy.

What does this situation mean? It is not at all clear now. The Germans are in full retreat in Russia. Events in Italy confirm the claims of Berlin, that the Germans have moved divisions of men from Russia to Italy. But why? Why lose in Russia to win in Italy? Is it anger at Italy? Or at the British and Americans in Italy? Watch Italy in November!

NOVEMBER TO NOVEMBER

November is election month. We have just held elections in Penna. and in other states and cities. One year from now we shall be looking back upon the election of our next President.

Wise people seek to understand the past and the present so that they may live more wisely in the future. Wise men try to be realists regarding tomorrow. What may we look for in the next year?

One, this country will be shaken to its very center in the presidential election next year. There will be no evasions of issues just because we are at war. That is not the American way. Nor is it the American mood at this time. This is due in part to the men now in office; in part to the fact that men are tired and wish to change things.

Two, the war in Europe will reach its climax. It is now rushing toward a climax. It may come soon.

Three, the war in the Pacific will become deadly. We are about through the preliminaries. Stout hearts are needed now.

EXTRA

WAYNE, Pa. Nov. 4. Wayne citizens were reminded afresh today that crime is increasing among youth. Yesterday in New York, a boy 15 years old was stealing money to take a trip west. When his grandmother found him, and opposed him in the thing he was doing, he strangled her to death and hid her body in a closet. Then he and a 17 year old friend came to Phila., then to Wayne. This morning the police took them in custody and soon had a full confession of the crime. In jail here, the boys played cards all day, showing no remorse. These are strange, tragic days.

LOUISVILLE, KY. Nov. 5 Republicans claim to have elected a governor in Kentucky. This is news. Without doubt, this indicates dissatisfaction with our national government. Whatever may happen next year, this caution may not be out of place. We have seen the country change parties before, seeking a solution of its problems. With what results? Something more is needed than a change in government.

SPORTS

Penn 13; Army 13

Army completely outplayed Penn in the first three periods but finally Penn got back in the game by a 35 yard pass from Michaels to Odell who made a spectacular catch and then ran 36 yards for the score. Then in came Penn's expert extra point kicker and as in the Dartmouth game kicked a perfect strike to tie up the game, so that both are still undefeated.

Notre Dame 33; Navy 6

As in all previous contests Notre Dame was just full of Bertelli. He ran, kicked and passed right through Navy, and since this is his last before going into the service he was taken off the field on the other players shoulders.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving, to be a real
Thanksgiving,
Must have a joy behind it;
Surrounded by a world at
peace,
And family ties to bind it.

So, in a few short weeks or months
Or maybe a year or two;
When our longed for, prayed
for, fought for, dream
Of world wide peace comes
true,

We'll have our real Thanks-
giving day,
That never again shall
cease;
With our precious ones
at home once more,
And the whole wide world at
peace.

RADNOR BREAKS LOSING STREAK
Wins After Losing Four

Radnor at last won their first of the season: 28 to 7 from Downingtown. McAleer, DeFelice, Loomis, and Knudsen all scored touchdowns for Radnor. Chuck DeRico converted all four times. Mattion went over for Downingtown.

Previously, Radnor had lost three straight this month; the first to Berwyn, 6 to 0. It was a fairly listless game, the only score coming early in the second period. The Radnor Raiders looked good on defense but had a poor offense.

Roman Cath. 14; Radnor 6
This was a peculiar game, the first half being played college rules, and the other, P. I. A. A. rules. Roman Catholic did its scoring in the first half, and Radnor scored in the second. It was a very muddy field.

Haverford 2; Radnor 0
This game was tricky, the only score coming when Trickett blocked Mullin's kick for an automatic safety. This came in the second period.

STORY - The Indian Murders

The G-Men are often called upon in their secret work to take on various disguises. And when there is a particularly difficult job on hand the operator must be well trained. Some G-Men are qualified printers, salesmen, radio-announcers, and telephone-cable splicers. Once on a job, they must carefully see to it that they arouse no suspicion. At a moments notice a jazz band, quite as good as any in the average night club, could be made up, composed entirely of G-Men.

The ghastly Hale murders need extra-special attention. Twenty or thirty Indians of the Osage country had been brutally murdered for their insurance money by a man named Hale. The Bureau sent in an Indian medicine-man. Surely, they hoped, he could get some important evidence. He did, too. Never in all their history had the Osage Indians taken anyone into their confidences as they did this medicine-man.

They told him that no other medicine-man was half as good as he was, and invited: "We like you, Stay here".

Hale was trapped and immediately condemned for his grim murders. Capture was difficult, for he was a very cunning murderer.

When the case was finally completed, and not until then, it was learned that the well liked medicine-man was a G-Man.

The G-Man knows no dangers-- they only know that they must succeed.

EDITORIAL- Post War Planning
By W. W. Adams

There are two sides to this war. One, the tragedy of it all. We forget that for a moment. Two, the post-war world. Several facts call for pointed emphasis.

One, the human race is making progress. Twenty five years ago (on the very eve of the end of World War I), nearly all men were bent on one thing - winning the war. All of us wanted a better world. But most of us had not thought through to the conclusion that it is necessary to plan and work for a better world. Only a few prophets were planning for this better day. Today it is different. The masses of men are willing to pay the price of winning this war, but we are determined also to push ahead when the war is over. We are not going to hold a parade, go home and let a few not always good - men shape our world order.

Two, youth need not feel that they live in a drab age. A generation ago, what could youth do? Our Christian, democratic civilization was covering the earth. Science was ushering in the age of plenty. Well, youth can now do plenty of pioneer living.

Three, a really new age is in the making. Our work, trade, travel, food, homes, clothes, schools and even our churches will be different. International cooperation will be a necessary and thrilling as has existed in the U.S.A.

Four, it is not too early to plan for this new world. We could not plan too early for a world as glorious and thrilling as we can make the one that God has put in our reach. Think, pray, plan, work!

GAME - Word Lightning

With his watch in hand, Bill points menacingly at Sarah and says, "B". Sarah starts reeling off words beginning with the letter, b. There are thousands of such words in the dictionary, and hundreds that Sarah knows, but she simply cannot think of them. It starts easily enough but she slows down, stutters, splutters, and stops!

Len is then given a letter and naturally thinks that anybody can do better than Sarah did. But paralysis is inevitable in this game. He, too, gets stuck. Everyone gets stuck. But everyone is optimistic until he is tried out. Thirty words in the allotted time of one minute is considered extremely good.

P.S. Neither proper nor improper names should be used. They make the game too easy.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth, less 80% for inheritance tax.
