TOTAL WAR!

Long ago Hitler said,
"This is total war." He made it total war - for all of us. Now everything
we plan or do, everything
that effects life, hears
on the war.

AFRICA

Around April 20, Axis soldiers were supposed to number about 175,000. This army, splendidly armed, had been pushed into an area of 100 by 50 miles, strongly fortified, with natural defenses also. They had 18 airfields. Under Rommel, von Arnim, and Kesselring, this army has power and shall muster it - but at plenty of cost.

THE PACIFIC

Mac Arthur pleads for equipment, especially planes. Why? He sees Japan fortifying from the Aleutians to the China coast, from Gilbert Islands to Rangoon, from the Philippines to the Marshalls. Japan wants Milne Bay and post Moresby so as to

Baseball

Major Leagues

The Baseball has begun. It began Tuesday, April 20, with the ashington Senators beating the Philadelphia Athletics 7 to 5. The season for all other teams began next day with four games being rained out. Here are the scores of the four games that were played:

American League
St. Louis Browns 3
Chicago White Sox 0
Cleveland Indians 1
Detroit Tigers 0
National League
Pittsburgh Pirates 6
Chicago Cubs 0
Cincinnati Reds 1
St. Louis Cardinals 0

drive the Allies out of New Guinea. This would complete their ring of fortifications.

EUROPE

The fighting in Russia is terrific, but indecisive. The stage is set there for terrible war all summer. Air warfare in Europe is greatly intensified; more and more destructive and costly to both sides. Meanwhile, the United States alone is making more than 7,000 planes a month.
What of Europe's future?

AIR SUPERIORITY

In a little over five months Allied airmen have shot down 1250 planes while losing 498. This is news!

DRAFTEES

Of the one and two thirds millions of Federal employees, more than 840,000 are of draft age. It is not politics to ask the meaning of this.

Here are my perdictions of how the teams will end:

NATIONAL LEAGUE St. Louis Brooklyn Cincinnati Pittsburgh Chicago New York Boston Phillies

SPORTS

AMERICAN LEAGUE St. Louis New York Cleveland Detroit Boston Washington Chicago Athletics

WAR CASUALTIES

In Tunisia, since
March 16, 5,372 U.S. soldiers are reported killed, wounded, or missing. The total U.S. casualties
since Pearl Harbor officially reported, are 78,235.
And Europe is yet to be captured from Hitler; the Japanese Empire is yet to be mastered!

THE WEATHER

This too, is war news. Abnormal weather is reported from all sections of the United States.
Floods, droughts, freezes, and snow, delay planting of crops, kill seeds just planted, kill small plants, fruit, and maturing crops. So reports run from north to south, and from east to west. Even freezes in May:

EXTRA

AFRICA, May 7; Without doubt, before the end of May the crisis will come. Latest reports say the Germans are putting up terrific resistance while being pushed back.

ICELAND, May 7; The death of Lt.Gen.Andrews and Bishop A. W. Leonard, and 12 others, is a shock to America. But realism compels us to get ready for more such reports.

There's so much good, in the worst of us, And so much bad, in the best of us, That it little behooves any of us, To talk about the rest of us.

After having read carefully your February issue

THE SECOND WAR LOAN!

The government is trying to raise 13,000,000,000 dollars in a very short time. Buy War Bonds and help to make the goal.

WAYNE NEWS

Easter Sunday was celebrated in Wayne with very effective and beautiful services in all the churches. Quite a number of people joined the churches and were baptized.

BOND INTEREST

Not many people take the time to figure out the interest paid on a War Bons. Mr. Lenker, of Radnor High School, did take the time and found that the interest paid on a Bond is 3 1/3%.

If bond salesmen would advertise the interest, they would sell more bonds.

SATURDAY GAMES

The first "Saturday Game" was played on April 10th. Team 1 won by a score of 7 to 5. The next game was rained out, and the nex one was called off because the following day was Easter The next one was played on May 1st with team 2 winning 15 to 5. The next one will be played on May 8. Anyone may come and bring what baseball equipment they have, with them. There haven't been enough people out there, so let's all come next Saturday morning; practice time 10:10, gametime, 10:30, at the North Wayne Avenue field.

A big grey rabbit, left its home and wandered around Wayne for several days. came to our garden repeatedly. Finally, in the interest of Victory, we caught i+ and built it a pen. The per was not adequate, the rabbit was too large. It got away and has been on the loose ever since. If you look out some morning and see a rabbit about the size of the average dog, calmly eating the tender tops down the rows of your Victory Garden, catch him if possible. You can either return him to me, or call Wayne 2298.

STORY - MYSTERY The House on the Hill (Continued from last month)

One day two detectives, who weren't on a case at that time, went to J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F.B.I., and asked if there were any cases still unsolved. "None except the ones already being worked on," he answered. The two detectives then asked if they could go out to Bloomingdale to see about that "haunted house." "Yes," he answered "but be ready to come back at a moment's notice."

"Okay," they answered,

and were off.
As soon as the two detectives, James fontgomery and William Dean, arrived, they went straight to the house in the daytime, and started searching. (In order for you to better understand this story, here is the house-plan of the "Haunted House.")

Fiont -Bedroom gomory Kitchen 2 bods walked into tho Living room room 0 with one Bodroom bod and 1 bed suddenly sat down on the floor! Immodiately afterwards there was the sound of something rolling across the floor. Dean stooped and picked it up and found that it was a B-B shot. "That's how the light went out," one of them said. Montgomery walked around into the living room and was leaning against the wall when right behind him he heard somebody walking. He called Dean and they pried a board out of the wall. Out jumped a squirrel and ran out the window. "That the 'Ghost that walks "" >

Right afterwards they heard the squeaking of a door coming from the back of the house. Going into the kitchen, they saw that the back kitchen door was blown off. A sudden gust of wind would blow the door between the kitchen and the living room open, and an indraft would blow it shut, but not latched.

They went into the room in which the couple had slopt. As they entered, they had a sort of dery feeling that someone was watching their every move. Dean was standing facing the closed door (where the misty figure had been) when he happened to glance at the door at a spot oven with his eye level. There was someone staring him right in the face! He jumped back and saw that it was only a bas-relief figure carved in the door. The man that had lived there before was known to be a good worker in architecture.

"Moonlight," Montgomory commented, "sometimes looks sort of like fog. When shining on this figure it would east shadows and make it look real. When their eyes got used to the dark, it would seem to disappear."

They then returned to F.B.I.

Headquarters.

After that, the house wasn't quite so haunted, although some people still cling to the superstition that it is.

Game - I Love my Love

"I love my love with an A because her name is Amanda and she is antiquated," Ed starts with some fashion. Susie, at Ed's right, continues, "I love my love with a B because his name is Beelzebub and he bites."

Any number of words can be specified for the description of one's love as long as all the words begin with the same letter as, "I love my love with an S because her name is Sophonisba and when she sings she stops subways," or, "I love my love with an F because his name is Frank and he is forever fomenting fights."

Tom, on his way to being high-brow, is certain to insist upon answers containing substantive clauses, qualifying phrases and other grammatical "something's" which no one understands or has even heard of. If he asked for an illustration he may spring something like this:

"I love my love with a T because her name is Tessie and that tantalizing tattletale, tasting tasty tidbits, told Tante the termagant that Ted tramped through Tasmania throwing tainted tomatoes to the tramps, teasing the trollops though they tore toward their ... SPORTS (Cont.d from P. 2.) This is a sports story by Harry Ferguson, Evening Public Ledger sports writer -July 3, 1941.

BOSOX BURGLARS FAIL In the late summer of 1948, when Joe DiMaggio's batting streak is finally stopped at 1026 games, they will still be talking about the day that themselved into a band of burglars in a vain attempt to rob the Yankee Clipper of his glory.
